I will provide ongoing assessment of the suitability of the client for the service and the listener.

I will create a safe place for the listener to explore and reflect on their work.

I will offer constructive feedback and periodically some targeted training. This may also include occasionally a listener maybe asked to record a client session for training purposes. (After seeking a signed permission form from the client).

If required I will submit a report to the training body or service manager of the Listening Service on any constructive feedback given a listener.

As the Listener

I will bring each case at some stage (and not hide more difficult or challenging cases)
