

This list will be added to over time, however, you can go further in your exploration of evangelism by reading the below books. If you have any suggestions to add to the list, please let us know.

- Big Yes, Little Yes, Healthy Maybe: A new framework for Evangelism, by Mark Greenwood.
- Mere Apologetics: How to help seekers and sceptics find faith, by Alistair McGrath.
- The Introverted Evangelist: Discovering the universal call to know Jesus and make him known, by Reuben Morley.
- Jesus At The Door: Evangelism made easy, by Scott McNamara
- Honest Evangelism: How to talk about Jesus, even when its tough, by Rico Time and Carl Laferton.
- The Reason For God by Timothy Keller.
