THINK & PRAY

Isaiah 3:8

"Jerusalem staggers, Judah is falling; their words and deeds are against the Lord, defying his glorious presence."

LEARN & LIVE

The first twelve chapters describe judgement upon Israel and Judah, who were supposed to be God's own people. God metaphorically is taking his people to court, and the verdict will be condemnation. Part of any judgement is based upon what we say and do. Whatever we profess or claim to be, sin seriously hampers the presence of the Lord. Before we can be put right, a time of humbling is needed.
