THINK & PRAY

ISAIAH 64:4

"Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him."

LEARN & LIVE

There is a passion and urgency to Isaiah's prayers here. God continuing his status of sovereign rule states that no eye has seen, no ear has heard what he has planned and we are to be in awe and reverence as God executes his plans. Paul applies this thought to the Corinthian church when talking about salvation, the church and the work of the Holy Spirit. This God loves us like a Father and because we are children with a Heavenly Father, we have a Father, not only able to help us in need but willing to do so.
